Beat High Fertilizer Prices-PART 2!

Let's face it, everyone is going to be looking at ways to reduce fertilizer application rates due to record high prices. SoilBiotics Soil Boost is a high Humic Acid-content product that promotes the conversion of nutrient elements (N, P, K, and trace elements) into forms that are more available to plants, making the fertilizer you do apply work a lot harder to get the yield job done. It can be broadcast any time prior to planting.
